RICHMOND

Warm Defense

Of Richmond and her Police Department Made by Ex-Mayor Woods.

The following red hot rejoinder to the disparaging editorial on Richmond by the Shelby Record, gives facts and figures that are timely and illuminating. Jude Greenleaf's court record, which is attacked, supports the following statement from the Ex-Mayor:

Richmond, Ky., Jan. 27, '11
Editor Shelby Sentinel,

My dear Mr. Shinnick:—My attention is directed to your disparaging remarks upon the police court report of Richmond, a "dry town," for the year 1910, which shows a total of 294 arrests during the year, of which 98 were for drunkenness, 41, drunk and disorderly and 23 for violation of local option laws. You say:

"That the fight against the liquor traffic and the traffic itself is still in the forefront, is evidenced by the above report."

Will you kindly publish my reply to the above? Richmond has now been without her twelve high license ($1,000 each) saloons for three and a half years. The town has grown 1,000 almost in population, and yet we had 440 fewer arrests for all of drunkenness the past year than during the last year with open saloons, when we had 602; this year past only 162. Is that not a splendid showing? Be honest, Ed!

Furthermore, during the last year with open saloons we arrested a total of 129 drunks on 12 county court days, and yet during the recent 365 days of the year 1910, only 162 on liquor charges. Is that not a splendid showing? Be honest, Ed!

Another thing: There were arrested on liquor charges during the last year under open saloons, 602 violators, and yet in the three and a half years of "dry" times, we are still 100 arrests short of that last single year. Is not that a splendid showing? Be honest, Ed!

Again: You remark truly that 162 out of a total of 294, or 60 per cent. of our arrests for last year were on liquor charges! Does that not prove to the wettest advocate in Shelby that liquor is at the bottom of three-fifths of our whole, entire category of public disorder, as proven by our police records? Then, Ed, would you have us increase that proportion to our old figures, by reopening the licensed saloon? I am sure Shelbyville will never attain to the summit of her splendid possibilities until she follows the course of Richmond and closes her saloons, and elects a Council that will choose police officers whom the indignant Mayor will not have to denounce publicly as unworthy to wear the badge of authority, as your good Mayor did through your own excellent paper not many months since.

The large fines your City Judge assesses are taken from unfortunates who can ill spare it. We do get less fines, because we have less drunkenness. Which is the better.

Don't drop this in the waste basket but print it as the reply to your disparaging remarks upon our Police Court and its Judge. No matter what your further remarks may be. Just let the Record's readers see both sides and judge between mob-ridden Shelbyville, and peaceful, progressive, contended, growing Richmond.

Your friend,
C. E. Woods.

The article which inspired the above is as follows:

IN CLARENCE WOOD'S TOWN.
(Shelby Record.)

"Richmond, Ky., the home of Hon. Clarence Woods, who, as its Mayor, made quite a reputation for strenuousness in his fight against the liquor traffic, makes a showing of the arrests that were made during the past year. That the fight against the traffic and that the traffic itself is still in the forefront is evidenced by the report. There was a total of 294 arrests during the year. Of these, 98 were for drunkenness, 41 for drunkenness and disorderly and 23 for a violation of local option law, a total out of 294 in which "I was the cause of the arrest as only $1,400 was lectured as fines against those who were arrested, it is they need a Police Judge like our Judge K.bacher."

Have you Received It?

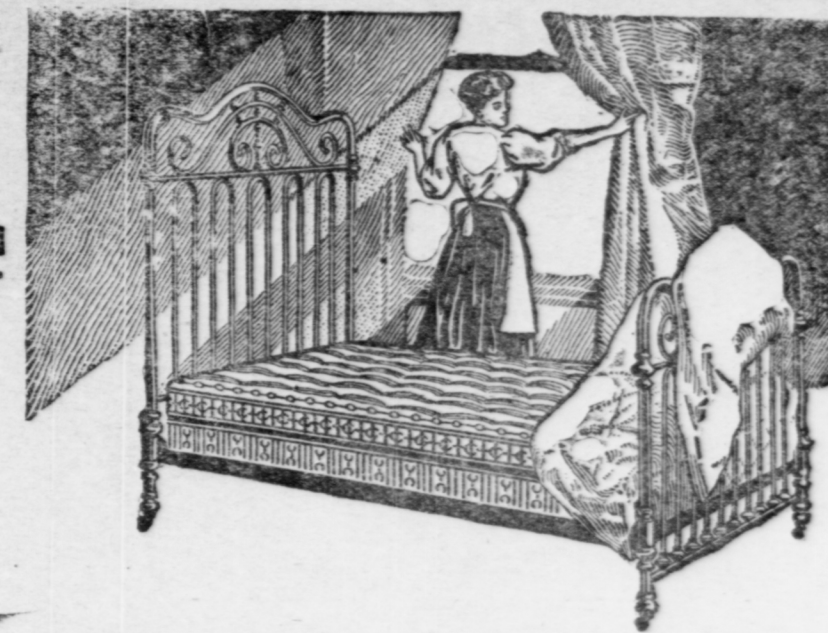

There is another endless chain started, this time it is a prayer, which is to be copied by the receiver and sent to nine different friends in as many days. The letter is as follows and has been received by several Richmond people:

"Our Lord Jesus, we implore Thee to bless all mankind, keep us from evil by thy precious blood and take us to dwell with Thee." It is said in Jerusalem, the Holy City, that he who will not write this prayer will meet with some great misfortune and he who will write it for nine days in succession, beginning the day it is received, shall have great joy on the ninth day and shall be delivered from calamity. Do not break the chain. Send each prayer to some friend. Sign neither name nor address but copy every word of this letter. Wish for that which is nearest your heart when you write and send the prayer on its message of joy to others and success to yourself."

Your "Aunt Alice" Lloyd is certainly going after the trusts in her efforts to see tobacco growers get a fair deal. Her latest move is a letter to Senator Ties. H. Paynter urging upon him the introduction of a bill in the Senate along the lines recommended in a resolution, adopted at a meeting of the Burley Tobacco Union, which provides that information in regard to the supplies of the tobacco trust shall be collected and generally distributed in the shape of public documents. The proposition of Miss Lloyd, which already has the earnest backing of several Kentucky Congressmen, seeks to give to the farmers the same knowledge of the trust's supplies that it now has of the farmers' crops so that the growers may reduce their acreage when the trust's supply is plentiful and increase it when the supply is low.

The Fish-Weich trial is off the court docket. Evidence was introduced at the trial, which makes all residents of Madison county hide their heads in shame. And to think it was here, that little city of churches, of Christian schools and colleges. What will these rich Yankees say who have been so liberal with their donations, when they learn what has been going on in this immaculate little town. It is in Madison, but we can't help it.

It is Ben Johnson who is afraid his religion would beat him, then he is not a very devout Catholic. He should have remained in the fight and if he lost because he was a member of that church, he should have gone down with flying colors and remained with the ship. Prominent citizens of Richmond and Madison county, who are Catholics and who have held positions of trust, condemn many statements in Johnson's withdrawal card.

The editor of the Henry County News has decided to quit publishing the state news and lands the following to his people: "The friends of this paper will please hand us all news items when they are fresh. We prefer not to publish a birth after the child is weaned, a marriage after the honeymoon is over, or the death of a man after the widow has married again."

CALDER POWERS paid a visit to the capitol building and incidentally to pay a visit to Gov. Wilson, his liberator, last Wednesday. He inspected the grounds where Goebel was assassinated to see if he recalled anything that took place there just eleven years to the day. How his conscience must have burned when he looked at the spot and thought of the man who had been there.

A REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR was inaugurated in Tennessee last week the first in thirty years and it is the best omen for Kentucky that could have been put up. The party was split wide open, because a few tried to control the state. The same people that split the party in Kentucky are trying to get back in power again and it will mean another Republican in the mansion at Frankfort.

THE women of Richmond, who are ever alert to the cause of the suffragists, are rejoicing over the news from the west that the constitutional amendment providing for the submission of the question of woman's suffrage to a popular vote has passed by the California Assembly 65 to 6. The amendment already has passed the Senate.

THAT Richmond is producing young lawyers of extraordinary ability, is evidenced by the great speeches some of the younger members of the local bar made in the Fish trial at Nicholasville. Many of the older lawyers were high in their compliments of the youngsters and declare they have great futures.

JAMES "Good Roads" Shackelford is receiving congratulations from people all over the county for his energetic spirit shown to make Madison county the leading one in the state for model roads, and for strict economy in the use of the turnpike fund.

L. C. Littell, of Owen county, editor of the Owen county News, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sup't. of State Schools and is a man well qualified for the place. If no other newspaper man enters this race, he will win easily.

V. O. Shugars, which occurred at Indianapolis the first of the week. The remains were brought to his home at 1215 Madison street for interment. Mr. Shugars was known to Richmond, where he came on many occasions in the interest of several life insurance companies.

At the Elks Club next Saturday there will be an exhibition of rare pictures from the hand of American artists, under the direction of the Women's Club. The hours are from 10 to 12 and 2 to 4. A small admission of 10 cts. will be charged. All school children free. It is a loan exhibition and the pictures compose one of the most beautiful collections in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Harber were the recipients of a joyful reception last Thursday evening, upon their arrival here from Richmond. They were met at the depot by a large crowd of friends and driven to their home in a special bus amid the deafening shrieks of tin horns, the noise of the sleigh bells and tin pans. It was a charivari of the old time style, complete in all its details and the young couple received the celebration of their entry into the city with much pleasure.

Irvine Herald.—Mr. Wm. Gould was in Richmond Monday. E. P. Campbell was in Richmond Monday on business. Barnett Chenault, of Richmond, was here today on business. Miss Susie Barr, of Richmond, visited Miss Lizzie Stevens last week. Mrs. J. J. Newport and daughter, Chloë, of Harrison, Tenn., have returned to their home at a most pleasant visit to friends here.

The next number of the Lecture course is announced for Friday, the 10th, of this week. It is the celebration of Bartolotta Concert Company and should bring out the largest crowd that has witnessed the attractions this winter. It is certainly a high-class number and of space forbids using the most excellent program. The members are Signor Giuseppe Bartolotta, for organ; Lord Yost, Violinist; Ella Schroeder-Yost, violinist and accompanist and Miss Margaret Chaffee, Reader and Impersonator.

The citizens of Kingston are just now in the heat of very able discussion as to whether a Graded School is the proper thing to have for that section. There are many prominent citizens who favor the movement and are working hard for it and there are still some who say the taxable property, which a graded school would leave in the hands of the supporters. But John Noland was called upon to tell them it was a matter for them to decide.

Will Run.

While not officially announced as yet, Hon. L. R. Herrington will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative from Madison in the lower house of the General Assembly. Of course his nomination is equivalent to election, as it is very doubtful if any other political parties would give him opposition. This is on account of his excellent record as a member in the last session. And, even tho a red hot opposition should arise, he has the strongest following of any candidate in that the Women of the county, especially the Mothers, would take the stump in his behalf on account of his valiant services in pushing their bill through in the last legislature, which gives to the mothers the same legal right in the guardianship of their children as the father, a bill that has been stuck in the legislature for many years. Not only in Madison, but all over the state, would the Mothers aid, if necessary in his behalf and with such strong backing he can secure most anything.

Reminder.

A handsome $50 clock which was given Mr. Dan Brock for writing more insurance in Kentucky than all other agencies for the Massachusetts Mutual is highly prized by this popular gentleman mostly because it reminds him of a clock, a sweet reminder of the fact that he led all other agents.

Reversed.

The Madison circuit court was reversed last week in the case of Campbell vs. Hockaday by the Court of Appeals.
The suit grew out of a dispute over the right to occupy a tract of land near Malloy Springs. Judge John Chenail represented the appellant and Smith & Smith the appellee.

Two More.

Deputy Marshall Billy Mays brought Tom Jenkins and Jim McClure from Nicholasville last Wednesday and lodged them in jail here charged with violating the internal revenue laws.
This makes four that the officer has discovered in the quiet little county of Jessamine, illegally handling out the juice of the corn.

Lagrippe Coughs

Strain and weaken the system and if not checked may develop into pneumonia. No danger of this when Foley's Acy and Tar is taken promptly. It is a reliable family medicine for all coughs and colds, and acts quickly and effectively in cases of croup. Remember the name Foley's Honey and Tar for all coughs and colds, for croup, bronchitis, hoarseness and for racking lagrippe coughs. No opiates. Refuse substitutes. For sale by Stockton & Son.

For Sale.

I have a splendid carriage for sale, Brewster, in fine condition, it is a depot wagon, carry four or five people. It has both summer and winter side doors, pole and shafts. I also have a set of hurd made carriage harness and a large quantity of harness horse all of which I will sell worth the money.

Dr. Clarence H. Vaughn.

Pneumonia Follows a Cold

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says, "It beats all the remedies I ever used." It is a cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me. No opiates, just a reliable house hold remedy. For sale by Stockton & Son.

A Winner.

Mr. Hiram Richardson, of Danville, mother of W. V. Richardson of the Kentucky Advocate, was here Monday and Tuesday in the interest of the Remington Typewriter. Mr. Richardson has won nearly every prize offered in Kentucky for the largest sales during the past three years and is on the road to another prize this year.

In Two Minutes

Easy and Quickest Way to Break up a Cold.

If you want instant relief from cold in head or chest, or from acute catarrh, try this:

Into a bowl of boiling hot water pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI hold your head over the bowl and cover head and bowl with towel. Then breathe the pleasant, penetrating, antiseptic vapor deep into the lungs over the sore, raw, tender membrane, and most gratifying relief will come in a few minutes.

B. L. Middleton and druggists everywhere will sell a bottle of Hyomei for 50c. Ask for extra bottle Hyomei in-halant.

Don't be stubborn. Don't be prejudiced. There is not a particle of morphine, cocaine, or any injurious or habit forming drug in Hyomei. Give it a trial it is guaranteed. It is made of eucalyptus and other grand antiseptics.
It will chase away the misery of catarrh or any affliction of the nose and throat in a few minutes.

Elks

Hold One of the Most Interesting Sessions in Years, Friday Evening.

Friday night was a big night in Elksdom, for ten candidates were shown thru the mysteries and the members, especially the older ones, were given some real pleasure in witnessing the proceedings. One of the largest crowds that has ever assembled on such an occasion was present and the expert degree team of the Richmond lodge was never in better form.

Those that stood the test and are now real Elks are Earl Curtis, Paul Burman, Wm. Milard, James J. Conway, Otto Powers, McCreary Simmons, Ovie Har-ber, Prof. Kelley, of the City schools, Harry Bybee and James Cleary. It was a "Tenderfoot" lot, as none of the candidates had ever had the experience of witnessing the initiatory work of a secret order.

The exercises began at eight o'clock and it was near midnight before the banquet table was reached. As usual, a sumptuous spread was prepared in honor of the candidates and it was one of the best that has ever been spread at the club on a similar occasion. The season's best was none too good and the committee spared no expense in making this part of the program one long to be remembered by the candidates, as well as the mysteries of the secret work.

Judge Brown and G. W. Rider, of Mt.
Vernon, both members of Richmond lodge were present, and Mr. Longmiller, of New Albany, Ind., lodge, and others from a distance. Judge James Benton, who is a member of Winchester lodge, was expected but was detained on account of the Fish trial at Nicholasville.

Judge Angry.

Judge Shackelford is very uneasy for fear he will be deprived of his turnip greens this year. A drove of chickens which he claims are not his property, have been watching the bed in his garden for several days and as fast as a sprout sticks its tiny head above the ground off it goes by some old hen.
This is a favorite dish of the Judge's and he is anxious to get the first mess before the price of eggs gets to soaring again.

Paris Gets It.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company has closed a deal with the Paris Electric Light Company for furnishing the electric current for operating the new telephone system of dispatching trains on this division of the road. The lighting company has just finished the installation of new and improved machinery for the purpose at its plant opposite the Louisville & Nashville station in this city.

Great Movement.

The Men's Bible Classes which have been organized in several of the local churches, under the International movement, are doing a great good is expected to result. Classes in the Methodist, Christian and East End Christian churches are growing and the members are doing a little missionary work thruout the city in gathering together all men who are not in the habit of attending Sunday school. The classes are for men only. At the Main street Christian church last Sunday 290 pupils were in attendance, a remarkable showing, which included the Men's Bible Class.

Louis Loses.

Under the ruins of the Omnibus bill, which was thrown overboard by Congress several days ago, is a claim made by Mr. Louis Landram, formerly of this city, for $4,750 due his father's estate as an employee of the government. Mr.
Landram has been pushing this claim for years, but it seems that there is always something to hinder the payment of these just debts. Senator Bradley notified Mr. Landram sometime ago that there were bright prospects for getting the money at this term but it seems that "Louis" must now wait in definitely.

Should Run.

A report from Stanford is to the effect that Hon. William Shanks may not run for Representative at the next term of the General Assembly. Lincoln county has never had such an energetic representative and the state has never had a wiser solon in the law making body.
The newspapers, especially, are indebted to him for timely service in their behalf and should be a member every paper in the Speakership. Madison county too is all the more anxious for him to announce he is so well known here. Mrs. Shanks was formerly Miss Lena Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baldwin.

Sudden Death.

While sitting at the supper table at Memorial Hall, at the Normal School last Tuesday evening, M. D. Gilliland, resident of Shoptown, Pulaski county, fell from his chair and expired in a few minutes. Physicians were hurriedly summoned, but he was dead before they arrived. His sudden demise was due to apoplexy. His remains were taken in charge by Bennett & Higgins and prepared for burial and later sent to L. S. home accompanied by several students. Gilliland was 48 years of age and was one of the oldest teachers in that section of the state. He was taking a special course at the Normal. A wife and several children survive him.

Speed's Talk.

The students of the Normal and the town people, enjoyed one of the most instructive lectures that has ever come to the school last Saturday, afternoon and evening. James Speed, of Louisville, a noted educator, gave an illustrated lecture on Kentucky schools. Although many of his facts were disparaging to Kentuckians on account of the poor showing that had been made by this state along educational yet he brought out the good news that educational organizations were making wonderful strides and were fast doing away with antiquated school houses and methods.

Court Day.

Monday was a corker in point of attendance of the court day crowd, as well as the amount and class of stock offered for sale. About fifty mules valued from $200 to $225. Bidding was lively, much more than was expected on account of the high prices and the owners held out for the top price. At the Madison stock yards Manager Joe Embry reports one of the best court days in years, in fact the highest prices for cattle in twenty years, yearlings bringing from $50 to $54 and heifers $5.
Hogs were plentiful and sold at 8 cents.
Practically all of the stock were sold out of the county and much of it out of the state.

City Council

Holds Regularly Monthly Meeting Last Thursday Evening.

The regular meeting of the City Council on Thursday evening brought out all members, excepting Councilman Todd and the only thing of importance that came before the body was a motion to permit the Managers of the local opera house to run a special set of pictures on Sundays. On roll call the motion carried, Councilmen Jones, Seaton, Lewis and Berry voting for it and Covington and Stone against. After looking into the question Mayor Rice vetoed it in the following official document:

Richmond, Ky., Feb. 1911.

Dear Sir:—By authority vested in me as Mayor of Richmond, Ky. By section 2503 Carroll's Statutes, I hereby veto the resolution passed by the city council at the regular monthly meeting Feb. 2nd, 1911 permitting Wines & Barter to operate a Moving Picture Show at the Opera House in this city on Sundays as I believe the exhibition of these pictures on Sunday would be a detriment to the morals of the community.

Samuel Rice, Mayor.

It can be passed over the Mayor's veto by a two thirds vote of the members, but it is not known whether an attempt will be made or not. Councilman Todd was not present, but to a representative of the Council said he would have voted "No", which would have then put the question up to the Mayor for the deciding vote.

All property owners who have been notified to rebuild the pavements in front of their premises and several others who were notified this week, must get busy as Mayor Rice has set a given time if the work is not started, then the city will take it up at the expense of the property owner. Concrete pavement was ordered from "Joe's" corner running to the Federal building. The Finance committee reported all bills against the city O. K. and the council passed them, which composed the routine business.

AN EXPLANATION.

Manager Baxter called at the Climax office yesterday, after being notified of the veto, and said that from the general expression he was of the opinion that the intentions of the opera house managers were misunderstood. He said that Sunday opening was only intended for three or four Biblical pictures, which were too long to be run in connection with the regular program on week nights and also because sacred pictures such as "The Passion Play," "Life of Christ" and "Life of Herod" are never "Sandwiched" in with vaudeville programs any place. These pictures, he said are strictly Sunday pictures and are run in many of the churches thruout the country. Another Sunday picture which I used in many places is the Red Cross reel, showing how the fight against Tuberculosis is progressing.

Fiscal Court.

The Fiscal Court is holding an important session today and bids for turnpike are being carefully read and acted on.

Passion Play.

The great Passion Play will be given at the opera house, matinee and evening, next Saturday, the 11th. Bargain prices will prevail. A wonderful reel

Held Over.

Albert Sandlin was held over to the grand jury in the sum of $500 for shooting and wounding Russell Winkler several days ago in this city. Winkler is improving and the physicians say he will recover if complications do not set in.

BIRTHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker are entertaining a fine daughter at their home on Main street. She has been named Mary Wilkerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Wilcox are proud parents of a new boy who arrived last Friday at their home on "K" street.

Lost or Stolen.

TOBE HARPER.

Come Home to Roost.

W. T. King, the old original 5 and 10 cits store man of Lexington many years ago, who afterwards lived in this county for several years, then moving to Garrard, was among his friends here several days the first of the week. With his family he was enroute moving back to Madison county where he says he expects to spend the rest of his days.

Excellent.

If Kyrie Bellow, the eminent actor, who made "The Thief" one of the reality great plays that it is could have been at the Richmond opera house last Monday evening and witnessed the part that made him famous, which was handled in a masterly style by James Heenan, an understudy, he would have been compelled to acknowledge his highest approval. Also Edna Crawford as Maria, a star and handled the difficult part of "The Thief" in as true a dramatic style as any of her predecessors of note in this particular part of this great play.
The company was a capable one and the performance was one of the highest class witnessed here in years.

Fish Trial.

After a trial lasting a week, in which was brought out some of the most sensational testimony ever recorded in the state, Grover Fish was acquitted of the charge of murder in the Jessamine circuit court last Saturday morning. Every resident of this county is familiar with the case. For the prosecution was Commonwealth Attorney B. A. Crutcher, Hon. A. Floyd Byrd, of Winchester; Hon. John H. Welch, of Nicholasville and Hon. T. O. Cobb, of Richmond. For the defense, Hon. J. A. Sullivan, of Lexington, assisted by C. C. and S. N. Wallace, A. B. Burman, Jr., of Richmond, and Hon. N. L. Brownagh, Nicholasville. Probably no case has been tried in this section in years that has attracted so much interest, unless it was the Arnold-Little trial in Nicholasville thirty years ago when case was also transferred from Madison county.

The following gentlemen composed the jury: J. H. Lane, C. C. Glass, G. M.
Corman, John Deane, Walter Davis, David Bell, Allen McDowell, W. R.
Lear, John Taylor, Ed Watts, R. Leo Blackford and John Woolley.

Rapid Growth.

The business of the East Tennessee Telephone Co. in Richmond and Madison county has grown so rapidly under the supervision of Manager H. H.
Floyd that it was found necessary to install an additional section of switchboard in order to accommodate the many orders for new telephones in the city and throughout the county. This additional section of switchboard will enable the company to serve 1,000 subscribers from its Richmond exchange.
The work of the installation of this new board was carried on by Mr. W. E.
Broadwell, District Inspector with headquarters at Lexington, and Mr. L. C.
Terrill, electrician and cableman of the Lexington district. Manager Floyd is one of the faithful employees of the East Tennessee Telephone Co., who shows more than ordinary ability in the handling of that Company's affairs, and stands high in the estimation of the officials. He has been connected with the company about eleven years.

DEATHS.

The death of Calvin Maupin, which occurred Sunday morning at his home on Estill Ave. in this city, will be received with universal regret by a wide acquaintance throughout the county. Deceased was in his seventy-fourth year and had been a resident of Madison all his life. He served in the Confederate army with distinction and went thru the four years of war as one of the bravest soldiers who ever enlisted for the Lost Cause. Besides his wife he was survived by four children: Dr. Malcolm Maupin, of Cincinnati, Carlisle Maupin, of this city, Mrs. Dan Riddle, of Corbin and Mrs. Everett Clarke, of Paris, and four brothers, Kit Maupin, of Madison and three in the west, with two sisters, Mrs. Kit Todd and Mrs. Mary Woolery, of this county. The funeral services were conducted at the Second Christian church Monday morning by his pastor, Rev. Rayner, and interment followed in Richmond cemetery.

Bright Girl.

Elizabeth, the twelve year old daughter of County Clerk R. B. Terrill is an accomplished Little Miss in the art of playwriting. Several weeks ago she decided to write a play and give the parts to her young friends who might be induced to start a dramatic club. She went at it and within a remarkably short time had six or seven parts and some exceedingly clever lines to a three act melodrama entitled "The Follies of 1818." The play dealt with western life and the different characters were ably handled by several of her young friends, whose ages averaged about twelve years. Many of the "grown up" folks witnessed the show and declare the plot was cleverly drawn out and displayed in the lines of the play, a remarkable feat for one so young.

In Memoriam.

Forasmuch as it has pleased God to remove from our midst one of our most cherished and valued members, sister Eugenia M. Hume, we would, with the deepest reverence and humility, recognize the sovereign right of the Divine Being in this act of his providence, assured that it was ordered in wisdom and love. At the same time, under a sense of our great loss, we are glad to bear testimony to her many virtues, her unsullied life and her exalted character.
The deceased was educated in the schools of this county and the Female Institute in Georgetown, Ky., at which latter she graduated in the summer of 1852. In December, 1868, she was baptized in fellowship with the church of her membership and departed this life December 27, 1910, aged 73 years, 11 months and 21 days. With her sins forgotten through the atoning blood of Christ, and clothed with his spotless righteousness, she pursued her way through this life depending on his promises and spiritual presence for strength in adversity and for solace in her afflictions. Increasingly, as her years advanced, with the end of the Christian life in view, she adorned the profession she had made with a quiet and Godly life. A conscious debtor to the grace of God, she loved the religion of her fathers and the society of his humble followers. As a lover of God, his church, his word, his truth, her memory is dear to the hearts of all His people. As a friend to the invalid and poor, there are many to bless her memory. Having obtained grace to be patient under her many and great afflictions, to be faithful in the varied relations of life and to have no fears in the dying hour, we doubt not also entered into eternal rest.
(Part of the record of the Regular Baptist Church, Richmond, Ky., approved January 29, 1911.)

Says Its Best.

Col. "A. Z." Leavell, of Garrard county, who has tried the Danville and Lexington tobacco markets, says the Richmond market are the best. He disposed of a big crop on the local breaks last Thursday and incidentally spent a few dollars with Richmond merchants.

For some time I suffered from kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and from this I knew that my kidneys were disordered. Get Busy Boys.

A new school diploma is to be awarded to boys in the public schools this spring and next fall. The plan was devised by C. M. Rankin, Commissioner of Agriculture. In each county in the state fifty boys will be selected to whom seed corn will be distributed by the department of Agriculture. Each boy who raises as much as sixty bushels of corn to the acre will be awarded a diploma signed by the Governor, the Commissioner of Agriculture, the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the County School Superintendent. In forty counties of the State a special lecturer will be sent to organize the boys into corn clubs. In the other counties

Free Dyspepsia Sample

Sufferers from indigestion are waking up to the fact that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the cure of so troublesome a complaint as chronic indigestion. What is required is something that will not only relieve but will tone and train the digestive apparatus to again do its work normally, and these same simple remedies cannot do. There is something more to the cure of indigestion than sweetening the breath, and yet a remedy that only contains digestive ingredients will not cure permanently, as the basis of indigestion is poor biliary circulation, and what requires a scientific laxative. What is needed is a remedy that combines these requirements better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which has been sold for a quarter of a century.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a laxative tonic, a scientific blending of natural ingredients for the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, stomach, sick headache and similar complaints. Its ingredients will so strengthen and tone the stomach and bowel muscles that they will again do their work naturally, and when that has been accomplished your trouble is over. Fannie Stuart, Stanton, Va., was a long-time sufferer, as was O. Tuck, Blackburn, Mo., and they both found their cure with this remedy. They became convinced that pills and tablets, "cure" "penetrators," etc., were at best only temporary relief, and that they needed Dr. Caldwell's of a free sample bottle, which he willingly sends to anyone who forwards name and address. Later, having convinced themselves through the free sample, they bought Syrup Pepsin of their druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either return the card to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 350 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

The State Commissioner will furnish each boy with half a gallon of seed corn and will give a diploma to each boy that will raise sixty bushels or more to the acre.

Important Decision.

Under the regulations and the ruling of the highest courts of the United States, a letter does not belong to the person to whom it is sent until it is delivered to him. The writer has a right to reclaim and regain possession of it, providing he can prove it to the satisfaction of the postmaster at the office from which it is sent that he was the writer. Even after the letter has arrived at the office which is its destination, and before it has been delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, it may be recalled by the writer, by telegraph through the mailing office.

The Famous Rayo

Gives the Best Light at Any Price

When you pay more than the Rayo price for a lamp, you are paying for extra decorations that cannot add to the quality of the light. You can't pay for a better light, because there is none. An oil lamp has the least effect on the human eye, and the Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made, though low in price. You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for some other lamp, and although you get a more costly lamp, you can't get a better light than the white, mellow, diffused, flickering light of the low-priced Rayo.

Has a strong, durable shade-holder. This season's burner adds to the strength and appearance. Made of solid brass, nickel, and easily polished.
